GRANT IN 1886.

[From the Marion (Ind.).Independent] A rether asguiffeant incident in the Republican Ohio State Convention was the cheering when Grant's name was mentioned. The cheers would break out again and again showing the deep hold the man on horseback (as he enemies succringly speak of him) has upon the people of Ohio He is to day by far the strongest man before the people of this country for president in 1880. If our present volcanic condition is to last till then we hope to see terant the Republican candidate for president, with a Republican Congress to back hun up. If such be the conditions communists and revolution will not rea loose ever the country.

(Prime the Washburten) surt House D > Hei

The Democratic newspapers and poli ticinne are alread that General Grant will be a candidate for the presidency in 1890. They have seed recomes for being afraid of terms for whenever his name is mentioned it brings up fresh remembrances of the victories he won ver the rebels and their Democratic llica in their bloody war upon the gov rument, and still later the glorine triumphs he gamed over the same balligerent elements in two sanguinary only the names of the nominees but a conflicts for the highest honor in the full account of the proceedings. From gift of the people Is it to be won let eratic party should be afraid of ferant power and popularity among the people who make presidents? From the Pittsburg Commercial Cart

GRADT IN INSC.

[From the Marion (Ind.).Independent] A rather significant incident in the Republican Ohio State Convention was the cheering when Grants name was mentioned. The cheers would break out again and again showing the deep hold the man on horseback (as his enemies sneeringly speak of him) has upon the people of Ohio He is to day by far the strongest man before the people of this country for president If our present volcanic condition is to last till then we hope to see timant the Republican candidate for president, with a Republican Congress to back hun up If such he the condi tions communists and revolution will not ren loose over the country. (Promithe Washington) surt Home. (b.) Hei The Democratic newspapers and poli titimis are alread that General Grant will be a candidate for the providency in 1890. They have good recome for being afraid of Grunt for whenever his name is mentioned it brings up fresh remembrances of the vatories he won ver the rebels and their Democratic llica in their bloody wir upon the gov rument, and still later the glorious triumphs he gamed over the same but ligerent elements in two sangumary only the names of the nominees but a conflicts for the highest honor in the full account of the proceedings. EXCURSION TO SPRINGFIELD.

For the last few days arrangements have been maturing for a cheap rate of fare for those who might desire to attend the Republican State Convention which is being held at Springfield to day, and those engaged in the enterprise placed the tackets for the round trip at the low pract of one dollar. The dustre on the part of many to attend the convention, coupled with so small an expense, determined many to go. The band was engaged, and banners prepared, so as to make a fine demonstration on the part of the Macon county delegation At about six o'clock this morning the band took up position at the corner of Water and East Main streets, near court house block, and played a few lively arrein the meantime those who proposed to murch in the procession to the depot, gathered there and received their banners One of these bore the motto. "I we Good Trims Deserse Another "

Another hore the following "Give us iranî in 1880

A third said "Macon County Soldiers, Grapt in 1890 ' the Ballot North and South Another had on one side a large portrat of trant, ind on the other — No 8 to 7 in

About half past 6 the procession moved in the direction of the depot, and on arriving there the number going to Spring table reached nearly or quate one hundred and fifty. We presume the Macon county delegation will be as imposing is any in attendance it the convention. Quite a number of grathenen took then wives

Payment for Slaves Demanded.

The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph and Mes enger calls for the repeal of the Fourteenth Amendment, that the Southern people may extert payment for their liberated slaves. It says: "Those slaves were not cannon and bayonets and arm ed focs in the so-called rebellion, and in no sense contraband. They were our property, solemnly and specifically recognized as such, and duly recognized and guaranteed by that Constitution and Union which our adversaries alleged they took up arms to maintain intact and defend. Moreover they took no part in that fratracidal struggle, save when forced to join the ranks of the invader, and wage war against their best friends and benetactors. On the bandit ti principle that 'might makes right, and 'to the victor belongs the spoils only, therefore, can this robbery of im poverished people be justified." We can not but indulge the hope that when we have helped to extinguish the public debt, and time has healed the gaping wounds of the past, when reason and brotherly love shall have gained the ascendency over prejudice and hate, even though it shall be the next generation, brave and honorable people of the same blood and lineage will see to it that the value of our property in slaves shall be returned to those from whom it was wrongfully wrestled. It will do no harm to keep this question before the people, that they may preserve the records and proper memoranda of their
